BRYAN NAMES "AVAILABLES"

Throws the National Convention Into a Turmoil.

CHEERED, BOOED AND HISSED

Elter Investive Hurlled at the Commoner When He Winds Up Speech With an Indorsement of McAdoo. Hecklers Hurl Queries Regarding Oil and Other Matters—Day's Proceedings.

New York, July 3.—The Democratic national convention was thrown into confusion when William J. Bryan appeared on the platform and named several men whom he regarded as fit for the Democratic presidential nomination. He wound up with an indorsement of William G. McAdoo.

As McAdoo was named the Californian's delegates leaped to their feet, cheering and waving flags. The Smith delegates rushed into the aisles in an angry mood. Shouts of derision, bitter invectives, were hurled at the "Commoner." "Get down, you haven't a friend in the world," "Oil, oil, oil, oil," came from other directions.

A delegate shouting at the top of his lungs demanded that Bryan recognize him. "How can you stand there and indorse a man who accepted money from oil interests in the great scandal that has been exposed?" he demanded.

Bryan characterized McAdoo as a progressive. "Our candidate must be a man whose record on the liquor question is such that every mother will know her home will be protected," he said. "I have given you the names of men whose position will not be questioned on the matter of law enforcement."

"The oil man, how about the oil man?" came up from the floor. Individuals tried to make speeches denouncing McAdoo's oil connections. "You have said Senator Walsh is the greatest investigator in the United States. Senator Walsh has exposed the fact that McAdoo was employed by Doheny," came a shout from the floor.

"I'll answer the question," Bryan promised. "McAdoo's retainer had to do with oil in Mexico. But I'll go farther than that. If any oil has ever touched W. G. McAdoo the intense and fervent opposition of Wall street washed all the oil away. No man who allows Wall street to influence his action has any right to criticize McAdoo." "I want to present an issue larger than any man," Bryan said.

"Is Youngstown, Ohio, in Mexico, where he got $200,000 for getting taxes back?" interrupted Dennis Dunlavy of Ashtabula, O.

"You dodge to something else—you are not willing to hang the case on oil," Bryan retorted.

"You didn't answer that man's question," shouted another delegate. "How about the coal contract in Italy—do you excuse that too?" shouted another heckler.

"The same old dollar bill," several shouted. "The bar associations have the right to disbar him if he has been acting unethically," Bryan continued, speaking of McAdoo.

Once the delegates got after Bryan on the oil issue, he did not regain his stride. His speech rather trailed off at the finish. Judge Rockwell, McAdoo's manager, said Bryan's action was a complete surprise to him. It was not planned by McAdoo, he claimed, and he was in doubt whether Bryan had helped or hurt his candidate.

HERE AND THERE

Congressman Isaac Bachrach of Atlantic City was badly hurt when his auto overturned. His business partner, Estel Evans, was killed.

Richard F. Grant of Cleveland was chosen president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States.

Human bones found at Toulouse, France, have been identified as belonging to a race dating more than 6,000 years ago.

Count M. Matsukata, one of the two surviving "elder statesmen," who for years dictated the policies of Japan, died at Tokio.

Whisky valued at $50,000 was seized by prohibition agents in a building at Yonkers, N. Y.

SLAIN IN VIRGINIA

Pal of Man Who Killed Cincinnati Patrolman Resisted Arrest.

Cincinnati, July 3.—According to information received here from Lebanon, Va., Ferd Honaker, companion of Wesley Belcher in the revolver fight with officers, which preceded the shooting to death here of Patrolman William Bond, was killed by police officers in the Virginia town. Honaker was killed when resisting arrest at the instance of the Cincinnati police, who sought him on an indictment charging "assault to kill."

Belcher, whose mother lives at Parksville, Ky., is now serving a life sentence for the murder of Bond, having been convicted of first degree murder with recommendation of mercy. The defense in his trial claimed that not Belcher, but Honaker, had shot and killed Bond.

Burns Prove Fatal. Zanesville, O., July 3.—Paul Gibson Swackhammer, 19, of Stoverstown, who was burned by a powder explosion, died of his injuries.

M'ADOO FORCES MAKE GAINS

Californian Goes Over 500 Mark for First Time.

SMITH HOLDS SECOND PLACE

Several Ballots Taken at Night Session of the Democratic Convention, the Deadlock Remaining Unbroken. Davis Loses Votes on the Latest Ballots—Effect of Bryan's Speech Lauding McAdoo.

New York, July 3.—William G. McAdoo received 505 votes on the fortieth ballot for a Democratic presidential nominee. It was the first time since the balloting began that he went over the 500 mark.

At the night session of the Democratic convention four ballots were taken. McAdoo shot over the 500 mark in the fortieth ballot with 505.5, but in the forty-first ballot his count was 504.9, and on the forty-second ballot he stood 503.4, with Smith 318.6 and Davis 67. This was a loss of one and a half votes for McAdoo, while Smith gained one. Davis lost three.

The convention adjourned until 10 o'clock today with the announcement of the result of the forty-second ballot.

McAdoo and Smith, both unable to make material headway, kept their relative places at the head of the list. Davis of West Virginia lost a few votes, but remained in third place, and the supporters of Ralston of Indiana became more active in presenting the qualifications of their candidate as a compromise selection.

The effect of Bryan's appearance before the convention was not immediately apparent. The McAdoo men declared the incident would stimulate a new rally in the lagging fortunes of the former treasury secretary, but the Smith supporters said Bryan had turned the trick for which they had been waiting, and had relegated the McAdoo candidacy to limbo.

Missouri and Oklahoma had been induced to come to the McAdoo column for a few ballots at least and see what the McAdoo managers could do with the advantage of their moral support.

The McAdoo partisans, eager to recover from any reaction that might be developing against them as a result of the Bryan hurricane during the afternoon session, left no stone unturned to drive over the 500 mark toward the majority. They interrupted the announcement of the official vote of the fortieth ballot with a demonstration which was only quelled after repeated efforts.

Tom Taggart, Indiana leader, issued a statement outlining the merits of Senator Ralston of Indiana as a compromise for the Democratic presidential nomination. Taggart emphasized that the senator was a progressive and had made a good record for economy while chief executive of Indiana, and declared that the Indiana delegation held no hostility toward any other candidate. He said informally that he did not believe William Jennings Bryan's address to the convention, mentioning Ralston as an acceptable candidate had either injured or aided the senator's chances. When Ralston's friends urged Taggart to start a drive for him on the theory that McAdoo had been hurt by Bryan's speech, Taggart declined, and counseled waiting for another day or two if it seemed advisable.

TWELVE MEMBERS NAMED

Board of Tax Appeals Announced by President Coolidge.

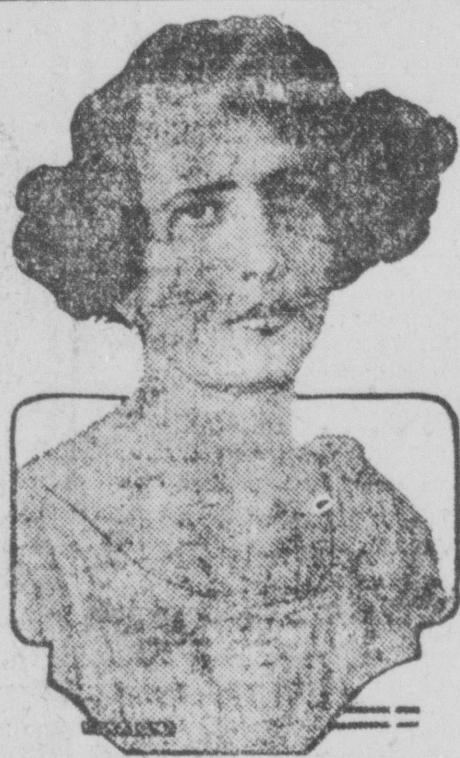

Washington, July 3.—Twelve members of the board of tax appeals, authorized under the new revenue law were appointed by President Coolidge. Those chosen from the general public were: Adolphus E. Graupner, San Francisco; J. S. Y. Ivins, New York city; A. E. James, New York city; John M. Sternhagen, Chicago; Summer L. Trussell, Minneapolis; John J. Marquette, Washington, D. C.; and W. C. Lansdon, Salina, Kan. Five were selected from the bureau of internal revenue, as follows: Charles D. Hamel, Grafton, N. D.; Jules Gilmer Korner, Jr., Winston-Salem, N. C.; Benjamin H. Littleton, Nashville, Tenn.; Charles P. Smith, Boston, Mass.; and Charles M. Trammell, Lakewood, Fla.

Three-Foot Fall Fatal.

Columbus, July 3.—Falling three feet from a ladder while picking cherries, George H. Welch, 68, died from internal injuries at his home.

SENORITA ALOMA

Suffragist Fined For Criticizing Cuban Government.

DOINGS IN OHIO

Dirigibles For the Army.

Akron, O., July 3.—Construction of six dirigibles for the army air service is to be started at once at the Goodyear plant, and the first of these is expected to be delivered for service by Dec. 1. The ships to be built are of the type developed by the Goodyear company during the war, and which were used to patrol the coast for submarines. They will be used primarily for training purposes.

Move Made Against Gambling.

Cleveland, July 3.—War on baseball pools and lottery tickets was declared by federal authorities here. More than 30 arrests in the city are expected, United States Attorney A. E. Bernstein said. A man giving the name of Roy B. Schardt was held at county jail under $10,000 bond on a charge of transporting gambling material.

Second Victim of Explosion.

Columbus, July 3.—The explosion at the Central Ohio Oil company's storage plant claimed its second victim when Lorenzo D. Williams, 52, died from the effects of the severe burns he received. Joseph Ryan, 26, was the first fatality. Williams was a truck driver.

Send Patrol After Solons.

Youngstown, O., July 3.—When several East Youngstown councilmen failed to show up for the regular meeting, the police patrol was sent after them. It failed to locate the president and Councilman Joseph Keppey, so council adjourned.

Youth Drowns.

Toledo, July 3.—Noah Eberhardt, 18, met death in the Maumee river. He was unable to swim, and was swept out into the current. A motorboat nearby failed to respond to the cry for help, believing it a joke.

Found Hanging to Tree.

Toledo, July 3.—The body of an unidentified man was found hanging to a tree near this city. Laundry marks bearing the initials F. H. I. were found on his clothing. He wore a hat with a Massillon store's name in it.

Train Hits Motor Car.

Delta, O., July 3.—Elvie Stockhove, 30, of Carmi, Ill., was killed, while Jacob Nue, 31, also of Carmi, escaped injury by leaping when the auto in which they were riding collided with a train near this place.

Infant Drowned.

Chillicothe, O., July 3.—Crawling to the mouth of an open well, the 3-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schreck of near Kingston fell in and was drowned.

Body Not Recovered.

Franklin, O., July 3.—Searchers are locating the Miami river in efforts to drag the body of Arthur Kohler of Middletown, who drowned in the river near here.

Aged Couple Divorced.

Cleveland, July 3.—Charging her husband, John Moore, with abuse and cruelty, Mrs. Moore, 80, was granted a divorce. The husband is 82.

Panama Canal Traffic.

Panama, July 3.—Vessels passing through the Panama canal for the fiscal year just ended numbered 5,230 and the tolls were $24,290,963, or 38 per cent greater than the total for the last fiscal year. The number of vessels passing from the Atlantic to the Pacific was 2,740, paying tolls of $11,792,194, as compared with 2,490 going in the other direction with tolls of $12,491,769. The month of June had the lowest figures for the fiscal year with 377 transits and $1,792,921 tolls.

NUISANCE TAXES HIT BY NEW ACT

Many Abolished at Midnight When Law Became Effective.

NEW LEVY GOES INTO EFFECT

Affects Auto Truck Chassis Costing Over $1,000 and Truck and Wagon Bodies Costing Over $200—Overpaid Income Taxes to Be Refunded During the Month—Tire Tax Materially Reduced.

The following levies are no longer effective:

Admission taxes, on admission charges of 50 cents or lower. Tax of 10 per cent must still be paid on theater or other amusement admissions of over 50 cents.

Telegraph and telephone message taxes of 5 cents for messages costing not over 50 cents and 10 cents for messages costing 50 cents or over.

Weapon taxes, covering hunting and bowie knives, dirks, stilettos, brass knuckles, also taxes on x-ray films and plates, candy, liveries, hunting garments, riding habits, yachts and motorboats not for trade, fishing or national defense, and pleasure boats.

Jewelry taxes, applying to musical instruments, silver plated flat table ware and other articles selling for not over $30 and watches not over $60.

Stamp taxes on drafts, checks and promissory notes, stamp taxes on sales of produce or exchange boards are reduced from 2 cents to 1 cent on each $100 or fraction. The stamp tax on playing cards is increased from 8 cents to 10 cents.

A new tax, which became effective at midnight, was a 3 per cent tax on automobile truck chassis costing over $1,000 and on truck and wagon bodies costing over $200. On other chassis and bodies and on motorcycles, a 5 per cent tax is imposed. Tractors are exempt. Taxes on tires, auto parts and accessories are reduced from 5 to 2 1/2 per cent.

Preparations are nearly completed in Washington for refunding about $16,000,000 to persons who paid their full income taxes March 15. Checks probably will be sent out about the middle of the month, paying back 25 per cent.

MILITARY ROUNDS UP ALL SUSPECTS

Action Taken to Block Any Attempts at Robbery.

Lorain, O., July 3.—Suspicious characters arriving here are being rounded up by the military. A dragnet has been thrown out. Every person, old or young, who can not satisfactorily explain his presence here is being herded into a stockade. Lorain banks are under heavy guard following reports that attempts were to be made to rob the safes. Between $2,000,000 and $3,000,000 in currency are in the vaults, city officials say.

A statewide relief committee, headed by Governor Donahay and Fred A. Miller of Columbus, met here with the local committee and received a complete financial report of the condition of the city.

Lorain will be completely shut down Independence day to prevent curiosity seekers from entering the city, according to Brigadier General John R. Quirk.

Plans for reconstruction of Lorain are occupying the attention of city officials and business men of the town, while burial of the recovered dead was conducted quietly and privately.

So great is the amount of personal property recovered from the ruins that the military established "effects depots" throughout the affected area, where all property is to be taken and delivered to the owner upon proper identification.

Work of clearing the ruins of the State theater, where authorities believe there may still be a few bodies, continues with the aid of steam shovels. The list of dead remains at 65.

THE WEATHER.

Ohio—Friday: Fair; warmer.

WILLIS SPEAKS

Says Democratic Convention Is Making Republican Votes.

Columbus, July 3.—Addressing the Ohio Republican Women's club here, Senator Frank B. Willis said the Democratic national convention is making votes for the Republican party. He held the Democratic league of nations proposal the "most absurd, incomprehensible, indefinite and indefensible" plank he had ever heard. Willis condemned the attitude of the Democrats in declaring that the Republicans had no foreign policy. "If we haven't a foreign policy," he said, "then Washington and Jefferson had none. But we Republicans have kept faith and have kept out of entangling foreign alliances."

Willis said Cox should have the Democratic presidential nomination. "Cox always has kept faith with Democratic principles," he said, "while the rest of them have been chasing around after false gods. If they were constant, they would nominate Cox, but they won't."

Coolidge to Be Notified.

Washington, July 3.—At a conference at the white house between President Coolidge, General Charles G. Dawes and William M. Butler, chairman of the Republican national committee, it was decided that the president will be notified of his nomination July 24, and Dawes of his nomination as vice presidential candidate July 31. Coolidge's notification will be at the white house and Dawes at his home at Evanston, Ill.

NOT A TORNADO

Cloud That Struck Lorain Was a Waterspout, Says Scientist.

Cleveland, July 3.—According to Rev. F. J. Odenbach of John Carroll university, the storm that struck Lorain and other northern Ohio points, taking the lives of more than 80, was a waterspout or "line squall" and not a tornado. "The yellow streamers accompanying the cloud, and its general shape place it in the line squall class. The average layman would call it a waterspout," Rev. Odenbach said. "A tornado has the appearance of a huge elephant's head sticking out of the sky with trunk trailing on the ground. It sweeps a clean path and is likely to pick up a house and set it down a half mile away."

Fast Train Wrecked.

Lancaster, Pa., July 3.—The "Broadway Limited," one of the Pennsylvania railroad's fast passenger trains from New York to Chicago, was wrecked one mile east of this city, eight cars leaving the rails. Two women passengers and one member of the crew were slightly hurt.

Anderson Conviction Upheld.

New York, July 3.—The appellate division of the New York supreme court upheld the conviction of William H. Anderson, former state superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league, who is serving one to two years at Sing Sing prison, for third degree forgery.

M'ADOO FORCES MAKE GAINS

SMITH HOLDS SECOND PLACE

Several Ballots Taken at Night Session of the Democratic Convention, the Deadlock Remaining Unbroken. Davis Loses Votes on the Latest Ballots—Effect of Bryan's Speech Lauding McAdoo.

New York, July 3.—William G. McAdoo received 505 votes on the fortieth ballot for a Democratic presidential nominee. It was the first time since the balloting began that he went over the 500 mark.

At the night session of the Democratic convention four ballots were taken. McAdoo shot over the 500 mark in the fortieth ballot with 505.5, but in the forty-first ballot his count was 504.9, and on the forty-second ballot he stood 503.4, with Smith 318.6 and Davis 67. This was a loss of one and a half votes for McAdoo, while Smith gained one. Davis lost three.

The convention adjourned until 10 o'clock today with the announcement of the result of the forty-second ballot.

McAdoo and Smith, both unable to make material headway, kept their relative places at the head of the list. Davis of West Virginia lost a few votes, but remained in third place, and the supporters of Ralston of Indiana became more active in presenting the qualifications of their candidate as a compromise selection.

The effect of Bryan's appearance before the convention was not immediately apparent. The McAdoo men declared the incident would stimulate a new rally in the lagging fortunes of the former treasury secretary, but the Smith supporters said Bryan had turned the trick for which they had been waiting, and had relegated the McAdoo candidacy to limbo.

Missouri and Oklahoma had been induced to come to the McAdoo column for a few ballots at least and see what the McAdoo managers could do with the advantage of their moral support.

The McAdoo partisans, eager to recover from any reaction that might be developing against them as a result of the Bryan hurricane during the afternoon session, left no stone unturned to drive over the 500 mark toward the majority. They interrupted the announcement of the official vote of the fortieth ballot with a demonstration which was only quelled after repeated efforts.

Tom Taggart, Indiana leader, issued a statement outlining the merits of Senator Ralston of Indiana as a compromise for the Democratic presidential nomination. Taggart emphasized that the senator was a progressive and had made a good record for economy while chief executive of Indiana, and declared that the Indiana delegation held no hostility toward any other candidate. He said informally that he did not believe William Jennings Bryan's address to the convention, mentioning Ralston as an acceptable candidate, had either injured or aided the senator's chances. When Ralston's friends urged Taggart to start a drive for him on the theory that McAdoo had been hurt by Bryan's speech, Taggart declined, and counseled waiting for another day or two if it seemed advisable.

TWELVE MEMBERS NAMED

Board of Tax Appeals Announced by President Coolidge.

Washington, July 3.—Twelve members of the board of tax appeals, authorized under the new revenue law were appointed by President Coolidge. Those chosen from the general public were: Adolphus E. Graupner, San Francisco; J. S. Y. Ivin, New York city; A. E. James, New York city; John M. Sternhagen, Chicago; Sumner L. Trussell, Minneapolis; John J. Marquette, Washington, D. C.; and W. C. Lansdon, Salina, Kan. Five were selected from the bureau of internal revenue, as follows: Charles D. Hamel, Grafton, N. D.; Jules Gilmer Korner, Jr., Winston-Salem, N. C.; Benjamin H. Littleton, Nashville, Tenn.; Charles P. Smith, Boston, Mass.; and Charles M. Trammell, Lakewood, Fla.

DOINGS IN OHIO

Dirigibles For the Army.

Akron, O., July 3.—Construction of six dirigibles for the army air service is to be started at once at the Goodyear plant, and the first of these is expected to be delivered for service by Dec. 1. The ships to be built are of the type developed by the Goodyear company during the war, and which were used to patrol the coast for submarines. They will be used primarily for training purposes.

Move Made Against Gambling.

Cleveland, July 3.—War on baseball pools and lottery tickets was declared by federal authorities here. More than 30 arrests in the city are expected. United States Attorney A. E. Bernstein said. A man giving the name of Roy B. Schardt was held at county jail under $10,000 bond on a charge of transporting gambling material.

Second Victim of Explosion.

Columbus, July 3.—The explosion at the Central Ohio Oil company's storage plant claimed its second victim when Lorenzo D. Williams, 52, died from the effects of the severe burns he received. Joseph Ryan, 26, was the first fatality. Williams was a truck driver.

Send Patrol After Solons.

Youngstown, O., July 3.—When several East Youngstown councilmen failed to show up for the regular meeting, the police patrol was sent after them. It failed to locate the president and Councilman Joseph Keppey, so council adjourned.

Youth Drowns.

Toledo, July 3.—Noah Eberhardt, 18, met death in the Maumee river. He was unable to swim, and was swept into the current. A motorboat nearby failed to respond to the cry for help, believing it a joke.

Found Hanging to Tree.

Toledo, July 3.—The body of an unidentified man was found hanging to a tree near this city. Laundry marks bearing the initials F. H. I. were found on his clothing. He wore a hat with a Massillon store's name in it.

Train Hits Motor Car.

Delta, O., July 3.—Elvie Stockhove, 30, of Carmi, Ill., was killed, while Jacob Nye, 31, also of Carmi, escaped injury by leaping when the auto in which they were riding collided with a train near this place.

Infant Drowned.

Chillicothe, O., July 3.—Crawling to the mouth of an open well, the 3-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schreck of near Kingston fell in and was drowned.

Body Not Recovered.

Franklin, O., July 3.—Searchers are dragging the Miami river in efforts to locate the body of Arthur Kohler of Middletown, who drowned in the river near here.

Aged Couple Divorced.

Panama Canal Traffic.

Panama, July 3.—Vessels passing through the Panama canal for the fiscal year just ended numbered 5,230 and the tolls were $24,290,963, or 38 per cent greater than the total for the last fiscal year. The number of vessels passing from the Atlantic to the Pacific was 2,740, paying tolls of $11,799,194, as compared with 2,490 going in the other direction with tolls of $12,491,769. The month of June had the lowest figures for the fiscal year with 377 transits and $1,792,921 tolls.

NUISANCE TAXES HIT BY NEW ACT

Many Abolished at Midnight When Law Became Effective.

NEW LEVY GOES INTO EFFECT

Affects Auto Truck Chassis Costing Over $1,000 and Truck and Wagon Bodies Costing Over $200—Overpaid Income Taxes to Be Refunded During the Month—Tire Tax Materially Reduced.

The following levies are no longer effective:

Admission taxes, on admission charges of 50 cents or lower. Tax of 10 per cent must still be paid on theater or other amusement admissions of over 50 cents.

Telephone and telephone message taxes of 5 cents for messages costing not over 50 cents and 10 cents for messages costing 50 cents or over.

Weapon taxes, covering hunting and bowie knives, dirks, stilettos, brass knuckles, also taxes on x-ray films and plates, candy, liveries, hunting garments, riding habits, yachts and motorboats not for trade, fishing or national defense, and pleasure boats.

Jewelry taxes, applying to musical instruments, silver plated flat table ware and other articles selling for not over $30 and watches not over $60.

Stamp taxes on drafts, checks and promissory notes, stamp taxes on sales of produce or exchange boards are reduced from 2 cents to 1 cent on each $100 or fraction. The stamp tax on playing cards is increased from 8 cents to 10 cents.

A new tax, which became effective at midnight, was a 3 per cent tax on automobile truck chassis costing over $1,000 and on truck and wagon bodies costing over $200. On other chassis and bodies and on motorcycles, a 5 per cent tax is imposed. Tractors are exempt. Taxes on tires, auto parts and accessories are reduced from 5 to 2½ per cent.

Preparations are nearly completed in Washington for refunding about $16,000,000 to persons who paid their full income taxes March 15. Checks probably will be sent out about the middle of the month, paying back 25 per cent.

MILITARY ROUNDS UP ALL SUSPECTS

Action Taken to Block Any Attempts at Robbery.

Lorain, O., July 3.—Suspicious characters arriving here are being rounded up by the military. A dragnet has been thrown out. Every person, old or young, who can not satisfactorily explain his presence here is being herded into a stockade. Lorain banks are under heavy guard following reports that attempts were to be made to rob the safes. Between $2,000,000 and $3,000,000 in currency are in the vaults, city officials say.

A statewide relief committee, headed by Governor Donahay and Fred A. Miller of Columbus, met here with the local committee and received a complete financial report of the condition of the city.

Lorain will be completely shut down Independence day to prevent curiosity seekers from entering the city, according to Brigadier General John R. Quirk.

Plans for reconstruction of Lorain are occupying the attention of city officials and business men of the town, while burial of the recovered dead was conducted quietly and privately.

So great is the amount of personal property recovered from the ruins that the military established "effects depots" throughout the affected area, where all property is to be taken and delivered to the owner upon proper identification.

Work of clearing the ruins of the State theater, where authorities believe there may still be a few bodies, continues with the aid of steam shovels. The list of dead remains at 65.

THE WEATHER.

Ohio—Friday: Fair; warmer.

WILLIS SPEAKS

Says Democratic Convention Is Making Republican Votes.

Columbus, July 3.—Addressing the Ohio Republican Women's club here, Senator Frank B. Willis said the Democratic national convention is making votes for the Republican party. He held the Democratic league of nations proposal the "most absurd, incomprehensible, indefinite and indefensible" plank he had ever heard. Willis condemned the attitude of the Democrats in declaring that the Republicans had no foreign policy. "If we haven't a foreign policy," he said, "then Washington and Jefferson had none. But we Republicans have kept faith and have kept out of entangling foreign alliances."

Willis said Cox should have the Democratic presidential nomination. "Cox always has kept faith with Democratic principles," he said, "while the rest of them have been chasing around after false gods. If they were consistent, they would nominate Cox, but they won't."

Coolidge to Be Notified.

Washington, July 3.—At a conference at the white house between President Coolidge, General Charles G. Dawes and William M. Butler, chairman of the Republican national committee, it was decided that the president will be notified of his nomination July 24, and Dawes of his nomination as vice presidential candidate July 31. Coolidge's notification will be at the white house and Dawes at his home at Evanston, Ill.

NOT A TORNADO

Cloud That Struck Lorain Was a Waterspout, Says Scientist.

Cleveland, July 3.—According to Rev. F. J. Odenbach of John Carroll university, the storm that struck Lorain and other northern Ohio points, taking the lives of more than 80, was a waterspout or "line squall" and not a tornado. "The yellow streamers accompanying the cloud, and its general shape place it in the line squall class. The average layman would call it a waterspout," Rev. Odenbach said. "A tornado has the appearance of a huge elephant's head, sticking out of the sky with trunk trailing on the ground. It sweeps a clean path and is likely to pick up a house and set it down a half mile away."

Fast Train Wrecked.

Lancaster, Pa., July 3.—The "Broadway Limited," one of the Pennsylvania railroad's fast passenger trains from New York to Chicago, was wrecked one mile east of this city, eight cars leaving the rails. Two women passengers and one member of the crew were slightly hurt.

Anderson Conviction Upheld.

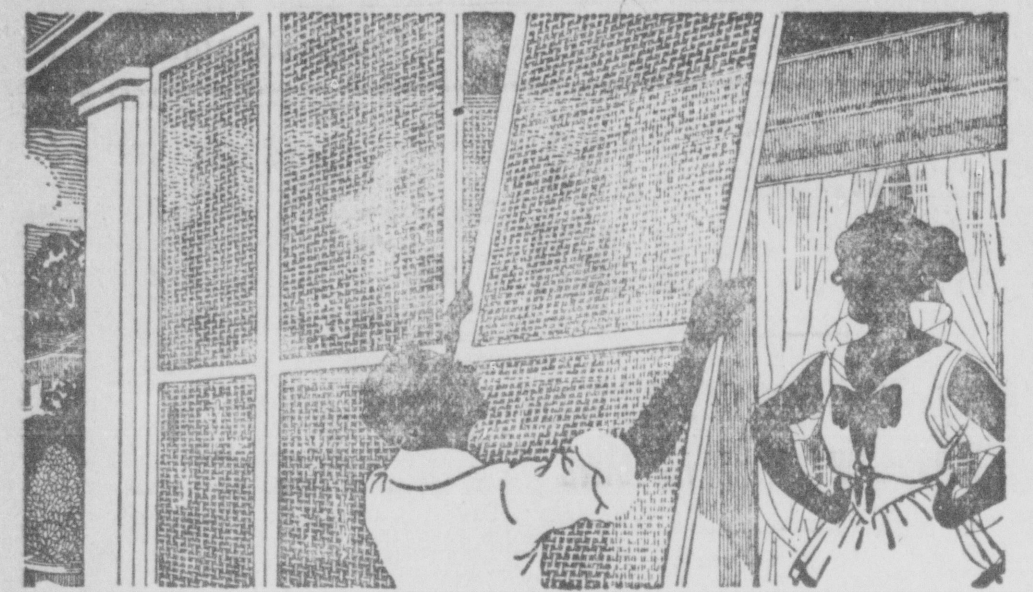

New York, July 3.—The appellate division of the New York supreme court upheld the conviction of William H. Anderson, former state superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league, who is serving one to two years at Sing Sing prison, for third degree forgery.

Right Now— PEARL for Screens!

RIGHT now you are beginning to think about screens—so now is the time to investigate G&B PEARL Wire Cloth—aristocrat of all screen materials. This material is the best wearing and best looking screen of its kind. It so far outlasts painted and galvanized cloths that there is no comparison.

The reason is simple. Rust, not wear ruins screens. G&B PEARL Wire Cloth is as near rust proof as metal can be made. That's the whole story. It requires no paint—no repairs and is the best looking material that ever screened a porch or door or window. Clean and sanitary, too.

There are lots of screens that look like PEARL but don't wear anywhere near the same. So—play safe—see us. We sell genuine G&B PEARL with the 2 Copper Wires in the Selva and the G&B Round Tag on every roll.

In Memoriam.
Editor Union-Herald: — Marcus Tootle was born November 7, 1892, in Ross county, Ohio. He was a dutiful son as a child. He received his schooling in the Ross county public schools, with the exception of the last year which was pursued in Fayette county. He came to Commercial Point in December of 1911, where he was joined by his mother in 1915, since which time he and his mother had made their home together.

He was a young man of worth and integrity, always kind and willing, he made many friends. He had been in failing health for the past two years and unable to work since late in the winter. Patiently he awaited the certain passing into the eternal country. At about 7 o'clock on the evening of June 24, 1924, he bade good-bye to mother and all assembled friends. He was aged 31 years, nine months and 17 days. He leaves to mourn his passing, his mother, seven uncles, four aunts, other relatives and a host of friends who esteemed him most highly. His mother gave heed to his spiritual training, taking him to Sunday school from the age of two years and he became very faithful, seldom ever missing a session. On April 13, 1913, under the labors of Rev. Hughes, he united with the Presbyterian church at Commercial Point. When his own church had no service he attended at the Methodist Episcopal church. He was not only faithful in attendance, but liberal in support as well. Devoted to the Master he was appreciated as an upright, willing industrious young man. Sustained by an unfaltering trust he suffered patiently and met death with a smile of confidence. He said "I am ready to go." Among his last expressions was a deep affection for his mother and an appreciation for her care and love. He said "You have been all that a mother could be." From a human viewpoint his many friends longed that he might remain among them, but God has called him and resignedly and cheerfully he departed.

Ben Franklin Used Gypsum as Fertilizer
Gypsum, or calcium sulphate, is used both as an agricultural fertilizer and in the manufacture of portland cement. More than 50,000 tons of uncalcined gypsum are used annually by the cement industry, a small portion of the material being added to the clinker from which finished cement is ground. Gypsum is added to regulate the setting time of the cement, for without the gypsum the cement would harden so quickly that workmen would not have time to place it properly. As a fertilizer, gypsum was first used in this country by Benjamin Franklin on his farm near Philadelphia. The fertilizing elements of the material were discovered by accident by workmen near Paris, France, when it was noticed that the grass near where they shook their gypsum-covered clothes grew better than elsewhere.

In Memoriam.

Editor Union-Herald: — Marcus Tottle was born November 7, 1892, in Ross county, Ohio. He was a dutiful son as a child. He received his schooling in the Ross county public schools, with the exception of the last year which was pursued in Fayette county. He came to Commercial Point in December of 1911, where he was joined by his mother in 1915, since which time he and his mother had made their home together.

He was a young man of worth and integrity, always kind and willing, he made many friends. He had been in failing health for the past two years and unable to work since late in the winter. Patiently he awaited the certain passing into the eternal country. At about 7 o'clock on the evening of June 24, 1924, he bade goodbye to mother and all assembled friends. He was aged 31 years, nine months and 17 days. He leaves to mourn his passing, his mother, seven uncles, four aunts, other relatives and a host of friends who esteemed him most highly. His mother gave heed to his spiritual training, taking him to Sunday school from the age of two years and he became very faithful, seldom ever missing a session. On April 13, 1913, under the labors of Rev. Hughes, he united with the Presbyterian church at Commercial Point. When his own church had no service he attended at the Methodist Episcopal church. He was not only faithful in attendance, but liberal in support as well. Devoted to the Master he was appreciated as an upright, willing industrious young man. Sustained by an unfaltering trust he suffered patiently and met death with a smile of confidence. He said "I am ready to go." Among his last expressions was a deep affection for his mother and an appreciation for her care and love. He said "You have been all that a mother could be." From a human viewpoint his many friends longed that he might remain among them, but God has called him and resignedly and cheerfully he departed.

Ben Franklin Used Gypsum as Fertilizer

Gypsum, or calcium sulphate, is used both as an agricultural fertilizer and in the manufacture of portland cement. More than 50,000 tons of uncalcined gypsum are used annually by the cement industry, a small portion of the material being added to the clinker from which finished cement is ground. Gypsum is added to regulate the setting time of the cement, for without the gypsum the cement would harden so quickly that workmen would not have time to place it properly. As a fertilizer, gypsum was first used in this country by Benjamin Franklin on his farm near Philadelphia. The fertilizing elements of the material were discovered by accident by workmen near Paris, France, when it was noticed that the grass near where they shook their gypsum-covered clothes grew better than elsewhere.

Six carloads of gasoline purchased by the state of South Dakota went on sale in Watertown, Aberdeen and Rapid City at 18 cents a gallon, including 2 cents tax.

Thirty youths, including 15 high school students, were arrested at Kalamazoo, Mich., following investigation of reports that a vice ring exists in that city. Eight girls are in the custody of the county juvenile agent.

Paper Mill Employees
in Germany Prosperous

While paper money in Germany is spelling poverty for thousands, employees in the paper industry are waxing happier and wealthier every day. According to a Munich business man, recently arrived in New York, paper making is now the key industry in the Fatherland and produces the most required article at present. It is the only industry with no unemployment. On the contrary, paper factories are run in double shifts.

Twenty large factories are entirely occupied in supplying the Reichsbank, according to the Munich citizen, and 72 in all are today working for it, converting trainloads of paper into money. Owing to the rapid devaluation of the mark, notes are very short lived. In a very short time most of them become superfluous, prices having risen so greatly that a note of a hundred times higher denomination must replace them. Although they look brand new, notes issued but a few weeks before cannot buy, any longer, even the cheapest objects.

While their exchange value has fallen, however, their worth as raw material has grown meanwhile to exceed many times their value as legal tender. Notes up to 1,000 marks are worth more than forty times their printed value to the ragman. Those up to 100,000 marks sell for four times their nominal value as junk.

Faced by the tremendous demand for new paper marks, the Reichsbank has declared that it has only a small stock on hand and that despite the overworked papermen, only a quarter of a trillion represents the daily output. With the demand so high and the supply so low the Reichsbank can satisfy only in a small measure the demands of its patrons. It considers first the claims of the bureaus which pay the stipends to the unemployed. Second to be considered are the industries which as far as possible are given a few truckloads of paper to pay the wage earner. Trade, including the banks, and the government authorities, receive little or nothing from the Reichsbank.

In the latter instance advantage is taken of the fact that the state employees are regarded as the most patient, suffering without making disagreeable complaints. Consequently thousands of state employees do not receive their salaries until they are many weeks overdue.

Small Girl Invests in Lemon

"Grapefruit," remarked the head of the family at breakfast, "is a comparatively new delicacy. The common people, anyhow, never had any of this product when I was a kid. Prunes were then the standard morning appetizer. Even oranges several years back, before the general use of refrigerator cars, were almost a curiosity in parts of the North. The big item in my Christmas stocking, in addition to a bunch of firecrackers and a pair of new skates, was an orange." "Oranges go back farther than your day," corrected grandma. "Of course, they were rare and expensive. But I think lemons preceded oranges. I well remember the first lemon I ever saw. My father gave my Brother Joe and me each a nickel. Joe bought candy and shared it with me. Finally we asked the storekeeper what we could buy with my nickel. He took my fortune and gave me a lemon. It puckered our mouths so we couldn't eat it. My nickel was a total loss."—New York Sun and Globe.

Battles With Leopard

A thrilling story of an unarmed native's fight with a leopard comes from a village in upper Burma. The man and his family were asleep when a disturbance among the chickens under the house roused them.

The Burman found a large leopard trying to get at his fowls. The leopard stood his ground and the Burman, unarmed, rushed at the animal. They closed and fell, fighting desperately.

The leopard, which was underneath, was inflicting dreadful wounds on his adversary with his hind claw when the Burman's father, a very old man, came to his son's assistance with a knife.

Seizing the leopard's head, he forced the knife through its throat and killed it.

Wood Buffalo Herd

Buffalo Park, in Alberta, has been set aside by the Canadian government as a wild life sanctuary, and will be unique in that it will serve as the habitat of the only herd of wild wood buffalo in existence. Virtually the same as the plains buffaloes in habits and customs, the wood buffaloes mate in September, migrate back and forth by the same trails, and take life easily at all times.

It is amazing how fast these clumsy-looking animals can travel. Even when they are walking a man must run to overtake them, and when they are in a hurry it requires a fleet-footed horse to keep up with them.

A Mouthful

Bill wanted to slip out of barracks—unofficially—to see his girl and he went to the sentry and stated the case.

"Well," said the sentry. "I'll be off duty when you come back, so you ought to have the password for tonight. 'It's Idiosyncrasy.'"

"Idio what?"

"Idiosyncrasy."

"I'll stay in barracks," said Bill.

Basis of Time Reckoning.

The basis of reckoning standard time at the United States Naval Observatory is transit observation of the stars. The observatory has three standard clocks running in a constant temperature vault, electrically wound and sealed to keep the air pressure constant. Meridian circle observations of selected stars are taken regularly on clear nights, and from these observations the errors of the standard clocks are determined and corrected.

Albino Tree.

Albino rats and albino people are more or less familiar to everybody. Out in the Missouri botanical garden, however, there was recently an albino California redwood tree. It was grown in a bowl from a piece of redwood bark. Shoots and leaves springing from this bark were perfectly white. Roots did not develop and the shoots died, but the mystery is not yet solved as to why the green color pigment of the normal redwood was lacking.

HERRICK
REFRIGERATORS

The Big Difference In Refrigerators

The main object of any refrigerator, of course, is the preservation of foods. The refrigerator that will keep foods in perfect condition longest is naturally the refrigerator you want—provided it doesn't increase your ice bills.

The Herrick answers those requirements with facts—not claims. And it does even more. It actually decreases your ice bills while giving you more effective food preservation.

And why? Simply because the Herrick is far more than an ice box—far more than a cold storage place. It is built on the scientifically demonstrated principle that more than merely cold air is necessary to keep foods in good condition for any great length of time.

Perhaps the biggest essentials to scientifically correct refrigeration are—

- No. 1. Circulation of cold dry air.
- No. 2. Effective Insulation.
- No. 3. Air-tight construction.

That the Herrick has these necessary essentials is a demonstrated fact.

Many proofs of the truth are visible even to the least informed purchaser. Others are hidden within the walls of the refrigerator, but nevertheless there, performing their functions so important to good health and economy.

And why? Simply because the Herrick is far more than an ice box—far more than a cold storage place. It is built on the scientifically demonstrated principle that more than merely cold air is necessary to keep foods in good condition for any great length of time.

Perhaps the biggest essentials to scientifically correct refrigeration are—

- No. 1. Circulation of cold dry air.
- No. 2. Effective Insulation.
- No. 3. Air-tight construction.

That the Herrick has these necessary essentials is a demonstrated fact.

Many proofs of the truth are visible even to the least informed purchaser. Others are hidden within the walls of the refrigerator, but nevertheless there, performing their functions so important to good health and economy.

POLITICIANS.

There never was a time when the politician was more unpopular or held in such low esteem as he is today, not only in the United States but thruout Europe. But while the politician may not be living up to the high responsibilities which rest upon him, in a great measure the crimes attributed to him are the crimes of electorate. A well known congressman once frankly confessed that it cost him $80,000 to be elected, besides painting half the school houses and churches in his district, and he wondered if those who took his money were not the ones really responsible for his efforts to get some of it back. Every year or two we have contests and investigations involving the use of "boodle," but the fact remains that the electorate itself was at least a party to the crime. Discussing this phase of our democracy the Christian Science Monitor asserts "democracy is but a means to an end, and that end is the growth in understanding and character of the electors themselves, because democracy forces them to learn from their own mistakes. No country can have a government better than the people will elect, and progress, therefore depends on improving not so much the politicians as the people."

The real way to get rid of the type of politician that now afflicts the world is not to abuse him with folded hands, but for good citizens to stand on sound programs and for the people themselves to show by their votes that they respect statesmanship and are willing to support it wherever it appears.

VERY HUMAN

When a man becomes a candidate for public office every phase of his life becomes subjects of discussion. It has been discovered that General Dawes is not the stern, strict, cold-blooded business man usually depicted, for he is not only a musician, but a composer. One of his best compositions was reproduced on the Victrola by Fritz Kreisler. It has also been discovered that his philanthropy has extended to many quietly arranged gifts to institutions and that he is as human a man as can be found in an extensive search.

The most nearly self supporting agriculture of America is said to be that of North Carolina, where farms on the average produce 75 per cent of all food used by their occupants. In the nation at large farms produce slightly more than 60 per cent of the needs of farm families.

While the ten commandments represent the eternal law of righteousness and wisdom, and ought to be obeyed, it is a safe bet that there are people who think they should be repealed because they are not obeyed or enforced.

BIG BILL TONIGHT

Reoch Devlin arrived in this city from Dayton Wednesday afternoon and from the way he showed up in his work out at the Armory last night it looks as the Waldo Patterson is going to be in for a strenuous evening when these two classy boxers clash at the Armory tonight.

Devlin is a tall rangy boy and looks more like a college student than a boxer. Reach also sports a little mustache and he says if Wally trims him he will have it shaved off, but he has a hunch that it will be on there for many more weeks so far as Patterson trimming him is concerned. The Dayton boy is considered one of the best welter weights ever developed in the Gem City. From the manner in which he and Waldo stack up in height and reach the match looks perfect and the fans should get many a thrill.

Patterson has been quite anxious to meet Devlin as the Dayton entry holds a decision over Wally which he would like to even up. Nothing would please Wally more than to make Reach hear the birdies sing as it would mean many good future bouts for him. Devlin, however, has had almost a hundred battles and he has never been knocked off his feet and he says it will take more than lanky Waldo to turn the trick. Thursday night will tell.

Doc Price of Mansfield and Kirk Galloway of Columbus, are appearing in Circleville for the first time. Both are anxious to make a good impression on the fans and better still, there is said to be a little rivalry between the two. Like Devlin and Patterson they seem to be an ideal match from a physical standpoint. Price gave Hank Fredericks a nice boxing lesson in Columbus, Monday week ago, and local fans who saw the bout say he throws plenty of leather. Dock's last two knockouts were over Bunga Back of Cincinnati and Wop Holcomb of Springfield, both in the first round.

The prelims should afford fistic fireworks galore as these beginners do not bother about such trifles as science and skill. Such handicaps as these mean nothing in their young lives. They are out there in the ring throw gloves and even if they do not hit the mark except at rare intervals the fans get lots of fun. Don't miss a single prelim if you want to laugh and grow fat. Bill Pickens hasn't missed a prelim in these parts since Fido was a pup.

The opening bouts will introduce Battling Toles of Circleville and K. O. Barksdale, of Columbus. These two dusky boys tip the Fairbanks at better than 170 pounds. Then there will be Young Brown of the Capital City against Bo Conrad of the best little city in Ohio and last but not least Kid Carpenter, of Newark, and Tazz Jeffries of Columbus.

If you like to sit way down where you can smell the rosin you had better buy your ticket at once. There are still some choice seats left. Thursday night should be a great old night for the local fistic enthusiasts.

IS NOT DESERT OF VAST SAND WASTES

Sand Dunes Form Very Small Part of Sahara.

We have inherited from the school geographies of half a century ago a picture of Sahara—confirmed by numberless novels of shifting sand dunes, inhabited by camels and tawny lions, and dotted here and there by the picturesque camps of Good Samaritans so necessary to the plans of novelists and scenario writers.

It will surprise many readers to learn that sand dunes form a very tiny part of the Sahara, that the characteristic formations, comprising more than three-fourths of its area, is not that of a flat plain, but of low, rocky mountain chains and rugged plateaus.

But other and even greater sacrifices of old beliefs must be made at the altar of truth, as revealed by modern exploration. No part of the Sahara is, within the meaning usually ascribed to the word, a desert—that is, no part of its vast area is completely sterile, no part is without at least occasional rainfall, and on the sand dunes, and even on the rocky wastes of the hills and plateaus, vegetation of some sort always exists.

But, having destroyed the ancient legend of the Sahara as a picturesque, but utterly barren expanse of territory, the temptation is strong now to rush to the other extreme and claim extravagantly that only the touch of man is required to transform it, from the Atlantic to the Nile, into one stupendous blossoming garden.

The French, particularly the French colonists in North Africa, are an enthusiastic and optimistic people, and they have not wholly succeeded in resisting this temptation. In spite, however, of natural and insurmountable difficulties of soil, of water supply and of climate, which will prevent the Sahara ever from supporting a large population in comparison to its size, there can be no doubt that during the next few generations a stupendous development will occur.—Oscar Lewis in Outlook Magazine.

Killing Off Herons

Snowy herons nested forty years ago on marsh islands, usually in Cassina bushes, about the height of a man's head.

The plumes are the nuptial feathers of the birds, at their best in the nesting season. Soon after nesting has been finished the plumes are shed, being frayed and worn then, useless for decorative purposes. Hence birds were lured to the nest, often with 22-caliber rifles, and the plumes cut away. Living birds have been captured, the plumes torn off, and the bird left to die a lingering death. The young in the nest starved.

Snowy herons were brought to the verge of extinction, for when a survey was made only seven birds were located in South Carolina and a handful in Georgia. The larger American egret nested in tall trees, but they were shot all the same, and many killed while feeding on the marshes, the birds being drawn by decoys.—Nature Magazine.

More to Follow

A young Scotsman had just lost her husband. It was a sort of affliction and the minister called to console with her. He found her in the kitchen eating a bowl of porridge.

"Ah, Janet," said the good man, "I have met a sore affliction, indeed. It is too bad, too bad!"

"Aye, that it is, sir," was the reply, "and I greeted (wept) over it all the night. I just stopped long enough to eat my breakfast and as soon as I've finished this bowl of porridge I'm going to begin again."—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

Willing to Settle

A school teacher said to a small boy:

"Joe, this arithmetic problem of yours about the huckster and the apples is all wrong. You'll have to stay after school and work it out."

"How far wrong is it?" Joe asked.

"It's a dollar wrong," said the teacher.

Little Joe, a profiteer's son, drew forth a roll of bills and peeled a dollar off.

"I'll just pay up instead of working the thing out," he said. "You see, I'm awful busy this afternoon. Pop and me are goin' off for the week-end on our new flying boat."

WOMAN HIKER

Miss Nellie Walker Will Speak at Opera House Friday Night.

Miss Nellie Walker, of Los Angeles, California, arrived in this city today on a hike from the city of Angels. She left there January 1, 1923, and has so far covered 44 states. She visits every state capital, and interviews every governor.

Miss Walker says she is not only a walker but a talker and will appear at the Grand theater Friday evening with the movies and will give a description and views of the state capitals she has visited. Miss Walker wears a mannish suit of khaki. She is a big and robust woman and is the picture of health, the outdoors seems to agree with her and she makes on an average of three miles an hour in her long walk. Miss Walker says she has met but few women hikers, but has met a number of men. She is a bright, entertaining talker and no doubt will be able to give a most interesting story of her travels. At the Grand opera house Friday evening.

THE THINGS THAT COUNT.

When you think of a man you seldom think of the knowledge he has of books, You seldom think of the clothes he wears, His habits, or faults or looks.

You seldom think of the car he drives Nor the bonds his gold has bought; When you think of a man you mostly think Of some kindness he has wrought.

You judge him not by his blocks of stocks, Nor his power of name or pen; You judge a man by the place he's made In the hearts of his fellowmen.

You judge him more by the fight he's made, By the way he has faced the strife, And not the amount of the bank account He's managed to get in life.

You think of the friend he's been to man, The good that he has done, And you judge the sort of a man he is By the friends that he has won.

AMUSEMENTS

A decided departure from the usual run of Mae Murray pictures and filled with many fine moments of comedy and drama "Mademoiselle Midnight" the Metro star's latest picture, opened last night at the Met theater for a stay of two days.

The film began with a prolonged depicting the court of Napoleon III, and introduced a French lady in waiting. This girl, portrayed by Miss Murray, is the grandmother of the modern girl of the story proper. The beauty of the scenes at the court was simply astounding, and Miss Murray looked magnificent in the hoop-skirts of the period.

Going into the modern period, the change of scene nevertheless kept the same air of old-fashioned beauty that prevailed in the opening sequence. The Mexico of Miss Murray's picture was a delightful, backward sort of place with quaint houses and quaint people.

The star appeared as Renee, the daughter of Don Pedro de Quiros, a wealthy cattle owner of proud family. Renee is afflicted with a curious malady inherited from her grandmother, a lady in the court of Napoleon III. At midnight she is subject to a madness which makes her incapable of knowing what she does.

With this premise, the story developed many thrilling moments, and kept the audience on edge.

Monte Blue played the part of Brent an American who loved Renee, and he was never more ingratiating, nor more manly. He made you feel patriotic all over whenever he appeared and put the quietus on the villain. Robert McKim was Manuel, a Mexican outlaw, and added to his laurels as one of the best of screen villains. Others in the fine cast included Robert Edeson, John Sainpolis, Evelyn Selbie, Otis Harlan, Nigel de Brulier and Nick de Ruiz.

"Mademoiselle Midnight" was written by Carl Harbaugh and John Russell. It was supervised by Robert Z. Leonard and presented by Tiffany Productions, of which M. H. Hoffman is general manager, and Robert Z. Leonard is director general. The photography was by Oliver T. Marsh.

A young Scotsman had just lost her husband. It was a sort of affliction and the minister called to console with her. He found her in the kitchen eating a bowl of porridge.

"Ah, Janet," said the good man, "I have met a sore affliction, indeed. It is too bad, too bad!"

"Aye, that it is, sir," was the reply, "and I greeted (wept) over it all the night. I just stopped long enough to eat my breakfast and as soon as I've finished this bowl of porridge I'm going to begin again."—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

Willing to Settle

A school teacher said to a small boy:

"Joe, this arithmetic problem of yours about the huckster and the apples is all wrong. You'll have to stay after school and work it out."

"How far wrong is it?" Joe asked.

"It's a dollar wrong," said the teacher.

Little Joe, a profiteer's son, drew forth a roll of bills and peeled a dollar off.

"I'll just pay up instead of working the thing out," he said. "You see, I'm awful busy this afternoon. Pop and me are goin' off for the week-end on our new flying boat."

WOMAN HIKER

Miss Nellie Walker Will Speak at Opera House Friday Night.

Miss Nellie Walker, of Los Angeles, California, arrived in this city today on a hike from the city of Angels. She left there January 1, 1923, and has so far covered 44 states. She visits every state capital, and interviews every governor.

Miss Walker says she is not only a walker but a talker and will appear at the Grand theater Friday evening with the movies and will give a description and views of the state capitals she has visited. Miss Walker wears a mannish suit of khaki. She is a big and robust woman and is the picture of health, the outdoors seems to agree with her and she makes on an average of three miles an hour in her long walk. Miss Walker says she has met but few women hikers, but has met a number of men. She is a bright, entertaining talker and no doubt will be able to give a most interesting story of her travels. At the Grand opera house Friday evening.

THE THINGS THAT COUNT.

When you think of a man you seldom think

Of the knowledge he has of books, You seldom think of the clothes he wears, His habits, or faults or looks.

You seldom think of the car he drives Nor the bonds his gold has bought; When you think of a man you mostly think

Of some kindness he has wrought.

You judge him not by his blocks of stocks, Nor his power of name or pen; You judge a man by the place he's made In the hearts of his fellowmen.

You judge him more by the fight he's made,

By the way he has faced the strife, And not the amount of the bank account

He's managed to get in life.

You think of the friend he's been to man,

The good that he has done, And you judge the sort of a man he is By the friends that he has won.

AMUSEMENTS

A decided departure from the usual run of Mae Murray pictures and filled with many fine moments of comedy and drama "Mademoiselle Midnight" the Metro star's latest picture, opened last night at the Met theater for a stay of two days.

The film began with a prolonged depicting the court of Napoleon III, and introduced a French lady in waiting. This girl, portrayed by Miss Murray, is the grandmother of the modern girl of the story proper. The beauty of the scenes at the court was simply astounding, and Miss Murray looked magnificent in the hoop-skirts of the period.

Going into the modern period, the change of scene nevertheless kept the same air of old-fashioned beauty that prevailed in the opening sequence. The Mexico of Miss Murray's picture was a delightful, backward sort of place with quaint houses and quainter people.

The star appeared as Renee, the daughter of Don Pedro de Quiros, a wealthy cattle owner of proud family. Renee is afflicted with a curious malady inherited from her grandmother, a lady in the court of Napoleon III. At midnight she is subject to a madness which makes her incapable of knowing what she does.

With this premise, the story developed many thrilling moments, and kept the audience on edge.

Monte Blue played the part of Brent an American who loved Renee, and he was never more ingratiating, nor more manly. He made you feel patriotic all over whenever he appeared and put the quietus on the villain. Robert McKim was Manuel, a Mexican outlaw, and added to his laurels as one of the best of screen villains. Others in the fine cast included Robert Edeson, John Sainpolis, Evelyn Selbie, Otis Harlan, Nigel de Brulier and Nick de Ruiz.

"Mademoiselle Midnight" was written by Carl Harbaugh and John Russell. It was supervised by Robert Z. Leonard and presented by Tiffany Productions, of which M. H. Hoffman is general manager, and Robert Z. Leonard is director general. The photography was by Oliver T. Marsh.

CITY COUNCIL IN SESSION

Mayor Fitzpatrick Collected $334.30
Fines and Licenses in June.

Ordinance for Improvement of Franklin Street Passed—Appropriations Made for Current and Other Expenses—Estimate for Storm Water Sewer.

The city council met in regular session Wednesday evening, July 2, with President John C. Goeller presiding and all members present.

Mr. Baker reported that the city engineer has furnished an estimate for the construction of the storm water sewer on South Pickaway street, and on his motion the same was referred to a committee consisting of all the members of council. President Goeller appointed Mr. Baker, as chairman of this committee.

Mr. Shaner, as chairman of the finance committee, submitted a budget showing the appropriations for the various departments and officers of the city for the fiscal half year ending December 31, 1924. Mr. Baker offered a motion which was seconded that the budget as submitted by the finance committee be adopted and the motion carried.

Mr. Marion, as chairman of the committee consisting of all the members of council to whom had been referred the ordinance determining to proceed with the improvement of Franklin street from the east line of Scioto street to the east line of Mingo street by grading, paving, curbing, draining and sewerage the same, returned said ordinance with the recommendation that the same be placed upon its passage and this report was accepted.

Messrs. Baker and Marion reported a meeting had been with the Water company in regard to the rates to be charged for water, but nothing definite had been agreed upon.

Mayor Fitzpatrick reported fines, licenses and fees collected during the month of June in the sum of $334.30 and on motion of Mr. Wolf this report was received and placed on file.

Director of Public Service Schneider reported that the bond issue for the repairs to the city building did not include the furnishing of the offices and the attorney general had rendered his opinion to the effect that the balance of this fund could not be used for other than for repairing and remodeling of the building.

Mr. Shaner offered a motion which was seconded that the matter of providing funds and furnishing the offices in the City building be referred to a committee consisting of all the members of council. President Goeller appointed Mr. Shaner, as chairman of this committee.

Mr. Shaner stated that the balance of the money remaining from the issue of bonds for the repair and remodeling of the City building would be turned over to the sinking fund trustees; that the trustees would, therefore, have this money in their possession and they could buy the bonds which will be necessary for the city to issue to secure the money which will be necessary for the city to issue to secure the money with which to furnish the offices in the City building.

The city solicitor was requested to prepare the necessary ordinances providing for a bond issue for this purpose and that the director of public service will submit an estimate of the probable cost.

An ordinance making appropriations for the current expenses and other expenditures of the city of Circleville Ohio, during the fiscal half year ending December 31, 1924, was introduced and passed under suspension of the rules.

An ordinance to levy special assessments for the improvement of that portion of the East Ringgold turnpike new Northridge Road, extending from the east corporation line of the city, to North Court street, by grading, draining, sewerage, curbing and paving was read for the third time. Mr. Marion offered an amendment which was adopted and the ordinance passed.

On motion of Mr. Marion the ordinance improving of Franklin street nance determining to proceed with from the east line of Scioto street to the east line of Mingo street by grading, paving, curbing, draining and sewerage the same was passed. On motion of Mr. Wolf council adjourned.

NOTICE TO PUBLIC.

Ordinance No. 494, adopting Eastern Standard time as the criterion and standard time for the city of Circleville, Ohio, having been passed by the City Council of the City of Circleville, and approved by Geo. You have the chickens, save them. Fickardt's Roup and Cholera Drops is a remedy for Roup, Colds, Canker, Swelled Head, Chickenpox, White Diarrhoea and Bowel troubles.

Elmer Doner, Ashville, Ohio, R. F. D. No. 1, bought 400 chicks and lost 250 of white diarrhoea in two weeks using several Nationally advertised poultry cures all the time. At the time that he began using Fickardt's Roup and Cholera Drops he had ten sick chicks that he considered as good as dead. He saved eight of these and has not had any more sickness in his flock. O'DOWD, REFEREE.

Fans who attend the boxing show at the Armory Thursday night will have the pleasure of seeing Eddie O'Dowd referee the opening bouts. Eddie is one of the leading bantamweights of the world and the only Columbus boxer to appear in one of Tex Rickard's shows at Madison Square Garden.

Frankie Susnell, of Portsmouth, will also be a guest of the local club. Frankie recently trimmed Eddie's brother, Phil O'Dowd, who is also a topnotch boxer. Eddie would like to avenge his brother and it is possible that he and Frankie may meet in a match in this city in the near future.

NO PAPER TOMORROW.

As Friday is the nation's birthday anniversary, no newspaper will be issued from the Union-Herald office on that day.

5% and Safety

"Penny wise and pound foolish" is the familiar old adage we often hear with reference to those who foolishly invest because of a higher interest rate but lack the foresight to investigate safety.

And so a financial investment is only as good as the institution back of it. An investment in Brunson Compound Certificates at 5% interest is wisdom of wise investing. They are backed by an institution recognized for its conservative policy—an institution that never had a loss.

Brunson Certificates can be bought in denominations of $100 or up and convertible into cash on demand.

6 Farms for Sale 6

The undersigned, by virtue of the power conferred upon me by the last Will and Testament of Nelson Hitler, deceased, will sell at public auction at the Court House in Circleville, Ohio, on at one o'clock P. M. Six of the Farms belonging to the Nelson Hitler Estate, situated in Circleville and Pickaway Townships, Pickaway County, Ohio, containing 1700 acres, and will be offered in separate tracts as follows, to-wit:

- 1st Tract consisting of about 106 acres
- 2d Tract consisting of about 245 acres
- 3d Tract consisting of about 175 acres
- 4th Tract consisting of about 315 acres
- 5th Tract consisting of about 305 acres
- 6th Tract consisting of about 515 acres

The first five tracts are being re-surveyed and will be sold according to the re-survey.

These lands are all located along the Circleville and Chillicothe Pike, known as the Scioto Trail, an improved highway, in the heart of the Pickaway Plains, and among the richest lands in the State of Ohio. The 1st Tract is within one mile of Circleville; the first five tracts are in one body of nearly 1200 acres and includes the Mansion House and Deer Park of decedent; the entire 1700 acres are suitable for all kinds of farming; a large part of this estate goes to the School District in which said lands are located and they have a First Grade Centralized School with a very low tax rate. All except the first tract have complete set of farm buildings, the fourth tract has a large cattle barn, silo and tenant house, the fifth tract a large Mansion House and Deer Park, the sixth tract a large Mansion House, a tenant house, etc.

Terms Made Known on Day of Sale.

For more particulars come and see these fine lands or inquire of

GEORGE STEELY

Forefather of Submarines.
One of the world's first submarine boats, built in 1864, by Messrs. Bushnell-Rice & Halstead of New Jersey, is now one of the relics on exhibition at the Brooklyn navy yard, New York. It had a speed of four knots and was propelled by hand. A crew of 10 men was carried, although it was only 28 feet long and 9 feet high. The cost was $60,000. The first successful submarine vessel was built by David Bushnell in America in 1775.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

And There You Are
Little four-year-old Dorothy had learned the Bible text, "Love one another" at Sunday school. She repeated it after returning home and her mother asked her whether she knew what it meant. "Why, of course I do," she replied. "It means that I must love you, and you must love me; I'm one and you're another."

Tripoli Is Called the Gateway to the Sahara

Tripoli is now under Italian rule and is called the "Gateway to the Sahara." and the caravan trade to and from the city through the desert is enormous. All goods are transported by baggage-camels, called in Tripoli jameels. Ivory, ostrich feathers, gum arabic, cloth from the Kano dye-pits, rhino horns, leather, etc., are brought in in great quantities from various parts of central Africa.

The Sahara is peopled by several very fierce tribes called Tuaregs, who levy upon the caravans enormous taxes as tribute for safe conduct of the caravans through the desert. Nor does this always suffice; more times than are pleasant the caravans are raided, the personnel killed or captured, and all goods and animals taken.—Capt. Beverley Giddings, in Adventure Magazine.

Origin of Honeymoon.
The origin of the word honeymoon is disputed. The old theory was that it refers to the practice of the ancient Teutons who drank "hydromel," a drink made of honey, for a month, or "moon," after marriage. There is an old story that Atilla the Hun indulged so freely in hydromel at his wedding feast that he died. Thus the month after marriage when people drank honey wine was called "honeymoon." But modern philologists frown on this derivation. They say originally the word had no reference to "month" at all, but referred only to the ever-changing character of the moon. At any rate, honeymoon now refers to the period immediately after marriage, especially that part spent away from home, when everything is supposed to be as sweet as honey.—Pathfinder.

Prince Rupert's Drops.
The name, Prince Rupert's Drops, is given to tadpole-shaped pieces of glass, formed by melting the glass and allowing it to drop into cold water. If the point of the tail to one of these be broken off, the whole will at once shiver to pieces with a loud report. Owing to the sudden cooling, the particles have not had sufficient time to arrange themselves in a stable manner, and hence they fly asunder as soon as the structure is broken. These curious drops are commonly supposed to have been discovered by Prince Rupert, the grandson of James I of England; but Faraday says that they were simply brought by him into England in 1660.

Mozart's Burial
Mozart died of malignant typhoid. The funeral service was held in the open air, as was the custom with the poorest class. The strictest economy was observed in the funeral arrangements. Mozart was buried in a common pauper's grave, the site of which was soon forgotten. Vienna erected on the probable spot a handsome monument.

A Bit Foggy
The old gentleman was lost in a London fog, so thick that he could scarcely see his hand before his face. He became seriously alarmed when he found himself in a slimy alley. Then he heard footsteps approaching.
"Where am I going?" he asked anxiously.
A voice replied weirdly from the darkness: "Into the river. I've just come out."—Everybody's Magazine.

Limitations of Sight
Even with good eyesight, it is impossible to recognize a person seen but once before, at a distance greater than 80 feet, says a German oculist.

Legend About a Bird
The medieval legend about a bird removing thorns from the crown placed on the head of Christ is as follows: The legend is that the crossbill, a bird of the family of finches, whose bill is peculiarly formed, enabling it to extract substances deeply imbedded, worked at the thorns of Christ's crown, seeking to extract them, and its plumage became stained with blood. For this act of mercy it was blessed by the dying Savior.

World's Smallest Newspaper

The smallest newspaper in the world has made its appearance in London. It is published by a national institute for the blind, and is printed in embossed type. It is called the Moon, and is made up of six pages measuring 11 by 14 inches, containing only 760 words.

CHARLES WRIGHT

Patrolman Suspended by Chief of Police Myers Wednesday Night.

At a hearing before the Municipal Civil Service commission held Wednesday evening, July 2, at the city auditor's office, following a cross examination by C. A. Leist, attorney, for the defense, Patrolman Charles Wright of the night police force, it is alleged made an attempt to reach his gun. He was not quick enough as Chief of Police Myers stopped him by placing his hand on Wright's arm.

The commission was hearing testimony in the case of the suspension of Officer Thomas McManamy. Attorney M. A. Seyfert had just finished questioning his witness and Mr. Leist was conducting the cross examination.

The policeman became incensed at a question lost his head and took up his gun which was on the table.

Attorney Leist refused to ask the witness any more questions after this episode and Chief of Police Myers suspended the patrolman.

MEXICO DEFAULTS

Oregon Announces Temporary Suspension of Debt Agreement.

New York, July 3.—President Obregon of Mexico has announced the temporary suspension of Mexico's debt agreement with the international committee of bankers in a cable to his financial agent here. Placing most of the blame on his former finance minister, Adolfo de la Huerta, for misrepresentation in arranging the loan, Obregon goes into lengthy detail for the government's reason in failing to pay on June 30 the interest of $1,000,000 on its recognized debt of $700,000,000. He gave assurance the government expected to be able to pay up all by the end of this year.

Loans to Farmers.

Washington, July 3.—The federal intermediate credit banks have made loans aggregating $6,637,515 to the farmers of the country in the slightly less than one year since the new credit system was organized. It was announced by the federal farm loan board. Up to May 1, last, $27,697,757 of the loans had been repaid, showing that $48,943,758 of the government money is being used by the farmers to finance current crops or live stock production and marketing.

Newlon to Head Educators.

Washington, July 3.—Jesse H. Newlon, superintendent of schools of Denver, Colo., was named by the nominating committee to be president of the National Education association convention here. Twelve candidates for vice president and other officers also were selected, and it is expected all the nominations will be approved at a general meeting.

New Plant Nearing Completion.

Detroit, July 3.—Representing an investment of more than $1,000,000 and a year's construction work, the new Ford hydroelectric plant at Iron Mountain, Mich., is rapidly nearing completion. The dam is the largest on the Menominee river and will supply 11,000 horsepower to the Ford plant.

Many Naturalized.

Cleveland, July 3.—A total of 743 men and 35 women received naturalization papers in Cleveland during the year ending July 1, according to files of the naturalization clerk. Most of the naturalized were of Polish, Czech-Slovakia and Czech-Slovakia led by large margins.

To Consider Church Merger.

Chattanooga, Tenn., July 3.—The special general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church South convened here to decide upon the question of uniting with the northern branch. Rumors spread that a federal court injunction would be asked to break up the meeting. Such a move would indefinitely delay action on the reuniting of the church.

Odd Experience

While shopping in my home town, writes a correspondent of the Chicago Journal, I was suddenly caught in the arms of an old lady who cried, "Edna, Edna, why did you leave John? Come back to him. John, here's Edna," she screamed. John took me in his arms and tried to kiss me. I hid my face. The clerks had known me for years, and came to my rescue. They were hard to convince that I was not Edna, but after looking me over carefully they left with puzzled looks on their faces.

Elephant's Last Walk

The autograph of an elephant on the way to his own funeral, an event which occurred some million years or so ago, has been found in Nevada. The footprints of the great beast are clearly seen as he made them when he plodded wearily along through the soft sand, subsequently hardening into rock. That it was his last walk was discovered when the scientists excavated the rock and traced the footprints to where the fossil bones of this denizen of the forests of ancient times laid.

Opinion and Heresy

They that approve a private opinion, call it opinion; but they that dislike it, heresy; and yet heresy signifies no more than private opinion.—Thomas Hobbes.

STILL BALLOTING

More Than Fifty Roll Calls and the End is Not Yet.

In the National Democratic convention in New York on the fifty-second ballot today there were thirteen candidates for the office of president. On the 52d and 53d the "Peerless Candidate" W. J. Bryan, who has been nominated three times for the office received six votes. The highest vote was received by William Gibbs McAdoo 505½ votes on the 43d ballot On the 53d ballot he received 423½ a loss of 82 votes.

The 53d ballot was: McAdoo, 423½; Smith, 330½; Ralston, 94; Glass, 35; J. W. Davis, 63; Underwood, 32½; Cox, 54; Robinson, 43; Ritchie, 16½; Saulsbury, 6; Owens, 4; W. J. Bryan, 6.

The 54th ballot was: McAdoo, 427; Smith, 320½; J. W. Davis, 59; Robinson, 43; Ralston, 92; Ritchie, 17½; Glass, 24; Saulsbury, 6; Cox, 54; Underwood, 40; Walsh, 1; Owens, 3; W. J. Bryan, 7.

PROBATE COURT

Report of Divorces and Liquor Cases in the Past Year.

The annual report of the probate court ending June 20, 1924, shows that July 1, 1923 and 28 cases were brought fifteen divorce cases were pending during the year just past, and of this number 30 were decided and 13 are still pending.

Of the total number 18 were brought by the husband and 14 by the wife, one was dismissed and two refused. In the cases granted ten children were given in custody of the father and 17 to the mother.

Twenty-six liquor cases covering 22 people were filed during the year. Fifteen cases affecting 16 defendants were disposed of covering the defendants. Eleven cases affecting six people arrested on liquor charges are still pending; $2,068.18 in liquor fines and $130.09 in costs were charged against the defendants in the liquor cases disposed of and these were paid.

A PROCLAMATION

Circleville has never failed to respond to any appeal on behalf of suffering humanity when the cause was worthy and the need urgent.

Wednesday, July 9, has been set aside as "Bundle Day" for the Near East Relief in Circleville.

On this day we are asked to give our used clothing, blankets, shoes and overcoats in order that some destitute refugee or orphan in the Near East may be kept warm next winter.

We are asked to take or send our bundle to one of the central receiving stations in order that the committee may be spared the expense of collecting individual bundles. The Bundle station will be located at the mayor's office and will be in charge of Mrs. A. J. Lyke and Mrs. E. S. Stephens.

With the exception of food there is no need greater than that of clothing. Winters in many parts of the Near East are similar to those in the northern United States and many of the refugees lack even the most miserable rags with which to clothe their bodies.

Therefore, I, as mayor of Circleville ask that our people respond to this appeal that comes to us from the Bible Lands for warm clothing and shoes.

World's Smallest Newspaper

The smallest newspaper in the world has made its appearance in London. It is published by a national institute for the blind, and is printed in embossed type. It is called the Moon, and is made up of six pages measuring 11 by 14 inches, containing only 700 words.

CHARLES WRIGHT

Patrolman Suspended by Chief of Police Myers Wednesday Night.

At a hearing before the Municipal Civil Service commission held Wednesday evening, July 2, at the city auditor's office, following a cross examination by C. A. Leist, attorney, for the defense, Patrolman Charles Wright of the night police force, it is alleged made an attempt to reach his gun. He was not quick enough as Chief of Police Myers stopped him by placing his hand on Wright's arm.

The commission was hearing testimony in the case of the suspension of Officer Thomas McManamy. Attorney M. A. Seyfert had just finished questioning his witness and Mr. Leist was conducting the cross examination.

The policeman became incensed at a question lost his head and took up his gun which was on the table.

Attorney Leist refused to ask the witness any more questions after this episode and Chief of Police Myers suspended the patrolman.

MEXICO DEFAULTS

Oregon Announces Temporary Suspension of Debt Agreement.

New York, July 3.—President Obregon of Mexico has announced the temporary suspension of Mexico's debt agreement with the international committee of bankers in a cable to his financial agent here. Placing most of the blame on his former finance minister, Adolfo de la Huerta, for misrepresentation in arranging the loan, Obregon goes into lengthy detail for the government's reason in failing to pay on June 30 the interest on its recognized debt of $700,000,000. He gave assurance the government expected to be able to pay up all by the end of this year.

Loans to Farmers.

Washington, July 3.—The federal intermediate credit banks have made loans aggregating $6,637,515 to the farmers of the country in the slightly less than one year since the new credit system was organized. It was announced by the federal farm loan board. Up to May 1, last, $27,697,757 of the loans had been repaid, showing that $48,943,758 of the government money is being used by the farmers to finance current crops or live stock production and marketing.

Newlon to Head Educators.

Washington, July 3.—Jesse H. Newlon, superintendent of schools of Denver, Colo., was named by the nominating committee to be president of the National Education association convention here. Twelve candidates for vice president and other officers also were selected, and it is expected all the nominations will be approved at a general meeting.

New Plant Nearing Completion.

Detroit, July 3.—Representing an investment of more than $1,000,000 and a year's construction work, the new Ford hydroelectric plant at Iron Mountain, Mich., is rapidly nearing completion. The dam is the largest on the Menominee river and will supply 11,000 horsepower to the Ford plant.

Many Naturalized.

Cleveland, July 3.—A total of 765 men and 35 women received naturalization papers in Cleveland during the year ending July 1, according to files of the naturalization clerk.atives of Poland, Jugo-Slavia and Czechoslovakia led by large margins.

To Consider Church Merger.

Chattanooga, Tenn., July 3.—The special general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church South convened here to decide upon the question of uniting with the northern branch. Rumors spread that a federal court injunction would be asked to break up the meeting. Such a move would indefinitely delay action on the reuniting of the church.

Odd Experience

While shopping in my home town, writes a correspondent of the Chicago Journal, I was suddenly caught in the arms of an old lady who cried, "Edna, Edna, why did you leave John? Come back to him. John, here's Edna," she screamed. John took me in his arms and tried to kiss me. I hid my face. The clerks had known me for years, and came to my rescue. They were hard to convince that I was not Edna, but after looking me over carefully they left with puzzled looks on their faces.

Elephant's Last Walk

The autograph of an elephant on the way to his own funeral, an event which occurred some million years or so ago, has been found in Nevada. The footprints of the great beast are clearly seen as he made them when he plodded wearily along through the soft sand, subsequently hardening into rock. That it was his last walk was discovered when the scientists excavated the rock and traced the footprints to where the fossil bones of this denizen of the forests of ancient times laid.

Opinion and Heresy

They that approve a private opinion, call it opinion; but they that dislike it, heresy; and yet heresy signifies no more than private opinion.—Thomas Hobbes.

STILL BALLOTING

More Than Fifty Roll Calls and the End is Not Yet.

In the National Democratic convention in New York on the fifty-second ballot today there were thirteen candidates for the office of president. On the 52d and 53d the "Peerless Candidate" W. J. Bryan, who has been nominated three times for the office received six votes. The highest vote was received by William Gibbs McAdoo 505½ votes on the 43d ballot On the 53d ballot he received 423½ a loss of 82 votes.

The 53d ballot was: McAdoo, 423½; Smith, 330½; Ralston, 94; Glass, 35; J. W. Davis, 63; Underwood, 32½; Cox, 54; Robinson, 43; Ritchie, 16½; Saulsbury, 8; Owens, 4; W. J. Bryan, 6.

The 54th ballot was: McAdoo, 427; Smith, 320½; J. W. Davis, 59; Robinson, 43; Ralston, 92; Ritchie, 17½; Glass, 24; Saulsbury, 6; Cox, 54; Underwood, 40; Walsh, 1; Owens, 3; W. J. Bryan, 7.

PROBATE COURT

The annual report of the probate court ending June 20, 1924, shows that July 1, 1923 and 28 cases were brought fifteen divorce cases were pending during the year just past, and of this number 30 were decided and 13 are still pending.

Of the total number 18 were brought by the husband and 14 by the wife, one was dismissed and two refused. In the cases granted ten children were given in custody of the father and 17 to the mother.

Twenty-six liquor cases covering 22 people were filed during the year. Fifteen cases affecting 16 defendants were disposed of covering the defendants. Eleven cases affecting six people arrested on liquor charges are still pending; $2,068.18 in liquor fines and $130.09 in costs were charged against the defendants in the liquor cases disposed of and these were paid.

A PROCLAMATION

Circleville has never failed to respond to any appeal on behalf of suffering humanity when the cause was worthy and the need urgent.

Wednesday, July 9, has been set aside as "Bundle Day" for the Near East Relief in Circleville.

On this day we are asked to give our used clothing, blankets, shoes and overcoats in order that some destitute refugee or orphan in the Near East may be kept warm next winter.

We are asked to take or send our bundle to one of the central receiving stations in order that the committee may be spared the expense of collecting individual bundles. The Bundle station will be located at the mayor's office and will be in charge of Mrs. A. J. Lyle and Mrs. E. S. Stephens.

With the exception of food there is no need greater than that of clothing. Winters in many parts of the Near East are similar to those in the northern United States and many of the refugees lack even the most miserable rags with which to clothe their bodies.

Therefore, I, as mayor of Circleville ask that our people respond to this appeal that comes to us from the Bible Lands for warm clothing and shoes.

Given under my hand and seal this 3d day of July, 1924.
